

MICALE, STOCK & SOBOLEVSKY, LLP

A New York law firm with preferred areas of practice in:

- Capital Development for Emerging Enterprises
- International Trade and Technology Transfers
- Internet, E-Business and Communications Law
- Technology and Intellectual Property Law
- International and Immigration Law

With over 60 years of collective legal experience, our attorneys are leaders in their areas of practice. Our Firm works with industry leaders to provide premier legal service to our clients. These carefully cultivated professional relationships span the world and include multifaceted businesses and organizations.

We provide legal counsel for individuals and businesses seeking advice and representation in the areas of international, immigration, technology, Internet and e-business law. Focusing our practice capabilities on these highly specialized areas of law has allowed us to be recognized as a leading authority in these groups by our clients as well as our peers.

With multilingual attorneys, our firm has the ability to cross language barriers that otherwise impede business development. Members of our Firm are fluent in Spanish, French, German, Ukrainian, and Russian. Recently, Micale, Stock & Sobolevsky expanded its legal services to Eastern Europe and Russia through one of the Firm's principals, Andre Sobolevsky. Mr. Sobolevsky was born and raised in Russia before coming to the United States where he has enjoyed a long and distinguished career as a practicing attorney. Mr. Sobolevsky, with the support of our other attorneys, provides our clients with unparalleled cross-cultural resources.
